To access the NEMDA Member Forums if you have forgotten your password, use the following information to generate a temporary password:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Username</th>
<th>Email Address</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Username – formatted First name space Last name (e.g. John Smith)</td>
<td>This is the address where you receive correspondence from NEMDA.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Click on "I forgot my password" that links to the webpage:

2. Input your Username and Email Address. A computer-generated temporary password will be sent to your email address (be sure to check spam filter if you don't see it in your regular inbox.)

3. Log in using your Username & the Temporary password you received.

4. After you are logged in, you can change your password to something you prefer by clicking on "User Control Panel" (top right of the screen, under your Username) and then accessing "Profile" and "Edit account settings" menu:

5. Enter your new password and then enter it again to confirm.

6. Enter your Temporary password in the "Current password" box and then click the "Submit" button.

7. Write your password down and/or instruct your browser to remember your password for you.
